

Utility Payment Conference

Code of Conduct

Participation Request

We kindly ask all attendees to honor our Code of Conduct. Our goal for the Utility Payment Conference is to provide a warm, friendly and educational atmosphere for all participants.

Attendee Invitations

All attendees are expected and asked to attend all scheduled conference events which includes the Monday Social, General Sessions, Breaks, Meals, etc. We thank you for your consideration.

Our agenda allows plenty of time for all attendees to meet with all Service Providers. Live demonstrations, hospitality suites, receptions, and other events are strictly prohibited during scheduled conference hours.

Conference Integrity

We thank you for assisting us in maintain the integrity of the UPC.

Promotional Information

Flyers, signs or promotional materials and information regarding any company may only be distributed or displayed during the conference, in the Exhibit Hall by registered Exhibitors/Service Providers and/or Sponsors.

Badge Sharing

Badge sharing is strictly prohibited. Each attendee must be a registered participant.

Code of Conduct Violation

Any attendee found in violation of any of the conference rules shall lose the ability to receive a copy of the registration listing, may be asked to leave without a registration reimbursement and may lose other conference privileges as determined by the UPC.

Anyone found taking any item without the sole permission of the owner of such items may face prosecution.